"Dry" Forces Continue to Fight for the Best Compromise Possible.

WASHINGTON, June 10 .- Prohibi tion features of the Food legislation to distilled liquors following President Wilson's suggestion to Prohibition leaders to drop the fight against manufacture of beer and wines.

Leaders discussed many proposals for a compromise of the liquor issue, but with little prospect of agreement. A clear cut fight and vote next week was in prospect with both factions admitting that, because of factions admitting that, because of the President's intervention, Prohibition would extend only to distilled NEW DETECTIVE SYSTEM spirits. Leaders of the "Dry" movement are working for the best posstble compromise.

Senator Martin, the Democratic leader, Benator Chamberlain, in Complete Reorganization of Bureau charge of the Food bill, and some other leaders planned and predicted adoption of an amendment stopping only liquor distillation, and giving the President no authority to stop wines tant recommendation made to Mayor and beer.
